CONSENT ORDER

Emmanuel Adeyanju, PT ("Mr. Adeyanju" or "Respondent"), is licensed as a physical therapist, who, at all times pertinent hereto, was practicing physical therapy in and around the Louisiana cities of Jeanerette and New Iberia.

While investigating a complaint against another physical therapist, the Investigative Committee, ("committee") consisting of Board Chair, Al Moreau, III, PT, Executive Director, Charlotte F. Martin and Board legal counsel, George M. Papale identified Mr.Adeyanju as a material witness in relation to the other investigation in general and, in particular, to physical therapy treatment records bearing Mr. Adeyanju’s signature. Mr. Adeyanju was contacted by the Executive Director and agreed to meet with the committee in Jeanerette, La. on June 18, 2014.

On June 18, 2012 Mr. Adeyanju met with Mr. Moreau and Mrs. Martin, reviewed the records in question, identified his signature and confirmed that the records were the records of physical therapy treatments he had provided to female patient, M. A. F. during the period of January 30, 2012 through May 3, 2012. Respondent also told the committee members that he provided the physical therapy services at the physical therapy clinic identified on the records and that he did not charge for his services because of his close relationship with the patient and her husband.

Following this meeting, the committee obtained additional records and information which raised questions about the validity of the treatment records and whether Mr. Adeyanju had provided truthful responses to the committee. The committee convened a second meeting on August 13, 2014 in New Iberia, La., which meeting Respondent attended. At the meeting Respondent initially confirmed to the committee the information he had provided earlier. The committee confronted Respondent with additional documentation and information obtained in the investigation. At the conclusion of the meeting, the committee advised the Respondent to carefully consider his responses and gave the Respondent an opportunity to contact the Executive Director in the event that he had additional information to provide.

Twenty minutes following the meeting, Mr. Adeyanju telephoned the Executive Director and admitted that he had signed the records as a favor but had not provided any treatments to M. A. F. during January 30, 2012 through May 3, 2012 as he had documented. Respondent expressed great remorse about what he had done, apologized for the extra work and expense he caused to the Board and expressed his willingness to cooperate. Mr. Adeyanju has cooperated by providing information of the circumstances surrounding his signing the records; which information is relevant to a pending investigation.

Mr. Adeyanju acknowledged that while attending an Association meeting in Houston, Texas in 2014, he was approached by the husband of M. A. F. who told Respondent that he had provided the physical therapy treatments to his wife for injuries she sustained in a motor vehicle accident. He also told Respondent that because there was a pending lawsuit involving the accident, he did not think it would be good to have his name on the treatment records as the physical therapist. Based on those representations, Respondent agreed to sign the treatment records as requested by the other physical therapist. Respondent denied receiving any compensation in connection with his signing the records.

FACTUAL BASIS FOR CONSENT ORDER

Respondent has acknowledged documenting physical therapy services which he did not provide and providing false information to an Investigative Committee of the Board.
