CONSENT ORDER

Pamela Ann Hoffman ("Ms. Hoffman" or "Respondent") came to the attention of the Louisiana Physical Therapy Board ("LPTB" or "Board") on May 7, 2015, when a complaint was filed stating concerns of illegal drug use. The allegations found within the Complaint were specific only to recreational illegal drug use that were unrelated to Respondent's practice of Physical Therapy. Upon receipt of the complaint an Investigative Committee of the Board was created to conduct a confidential investigation into the matter. The Investigative Committee consisted of Mrs. Charlotte Martin, Board Executive Director; Mrs. Kristina Lounsbury, Investigating Board member; and Courtney Newton, Board Attorney. In addition to written notice, respondent was verbally notified of her right to counsel and that anything said may be utilized as evidence of wrongdoing at a formal hearing. Ms. Hoffman verbally affirmed her understanding of all matters.

Following service, Ms. Hoffman was escorted to a drug/alcohol testing facility. While traveling to the facility Respondent admitted to recent use of marijuana and expressed her willingness to cooperate with the Board Investigative Committee. Following testing Ms. Hoffman voluntarily signed an Agreement to Abstain from the Practice of Physical Therapy therein agreeing to abstain from practice until all disciplinary matters are resolved.
